Our Story

Our family story is like any other story. It began with a dream. Since my father was a brasero (migrate worker), my mother always dreamed of having her family living together. My father came to the United States and returned to Mexico several times until one day, in 1970, he immigrated to California with his entire family of ten.

At first my family worked as crop chasers from the San Joaquin Valley to Sacramento Ca. Regardless of how hard the job was, my mother and older sibling were always working along-side my father. They worked in different fruit fields; picking strawberries, peaches, and walnuts. They worked from dawn to sunset and never complained (almost never). My mother was sure that one day we would be able to settle down and buy a little house.

In 1972, thanks to my older brother Rene, we settled in Orange County. Then in early 1973, we were able to buy our house (two bedrooms and one bath). My mom's dream came true! She said that her house was the most beautiful house in the world.

In 1974, my father with no business experience bought the restaurant. It had been closed for a couple of years and my father thought it would be nice to open a restaurant and have all the family work together. We were very excited. We had our grand opening on May 10th; My mother's "Mothers' Day Gift". She had all her family working under one roof. My father decided to name the restaurant "El Farolito", which meant to him the light of hope. That light of hope that became our family's success.

Forty-six years have passed since that day, and we are still working together. My mother says she can't thank God enough. Today 15 of the 40 plus employees are family members. My sister Maria has been working since we opened; My beloved wife is my right-hand, and my mother, age 86, still comes to the restaurant every day to check on us. The majority of my family still lives just around the corner from the restaurant. Since we live so close to the restaurant, we can make sure that everything is as it should be. I call it quality control; my mother calls it a blessing.
